Declaration of acceptance

By accepting the scholarship, the scholarship holder undertakes

- immediately inform us of any changes that are relevant to the award of the scholarship, e.g. if a change of subject, course or university is intended, if the studies cannot be successfully completed by the end of the standard period of study, or if the studies are discontinued or interrupted
- to independently comply with the possible tax and other recording and declaration obligations arising from the acceptance of the grant. Reference is hereby made to a possible duty of notification in accordance with the Ordinance on Notification of 7 September 1993. According to this regulation, authorities are obliged to report payments of 1,500 € or more to the responsible tax office. If advance payments have been made, these must be taken into account when calculating the relevant amount. The amount of the payments is irrelevant for recurring payments.

I have taken note of the above information and hereby assure the correctness and truth of my statements. I am aware that in the event of revocation of the grant, further funding cannot be provided and that there is no legal claim to the grant. I acknowledge that in the event of false information, the scholarship may be reclaimed in whole or in part.
